NONCOMPLIANCE SUMMARY

On September 29, 2021, Wiltshire tested positive for opiates and submitted a diluted urine. On December 27, 2021, Wiltshire submitted a substituted urine and the lab found that the sample was not consistent with normal human urine. On January 10, 2022, Wiltshire submitted a urine screen which was extremely clear. That sample was sent out to the lab and was found not to be consistent with normal human urine. On January 24, 2022, Wiltshire admitted to using cocaine, ecstasy, and marijuana. On January 27, 2022, Wiltshire was instructed to report to Turning Point to attend inpatient treatment on January 28, 2022. Wiltshire failed to do so. However, he reported for treatment on February 3, 2022.

U.S. Probation Officer Action:

The individual is now attending inpatient treatment at Turning Point to address his substance abuse issues. Once Wiltshire completes inpatient treatment, he shall comply with any aftercare recommendations from the treatment provider. He will then undergo random testing by our office, and Narcotics Anonymous (NA) meetings will also be recommended. We will notify the Court of any additional instances of noncompliance.
